CONSENT TO FACILITATION

Case # 09-_____

This is an agreement between:

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

(the parties), and

_____	_____
-------	-------

(the facilitators), to enter into facilitated discussions.

1. The parties agree to make a good-faith effort to work together with the aid of the facilitator and to make full disclosure of all relevant information.
2. Everyone understands that the facilitator is neutral and will help the parties develop their own solutions. Facilitation is not a substitute for independent legal advice and the facilitators are not acting as advisors or counsel.
3. While all of us intend to continue with mediation until an agreement is reached, anyone may withdraw from mediation at any time. If a party decides to withdraw from mediation, s/he will make best efforts to discuss this decision with the other party and/or the facilitator.
4. The parties waive any right of action they may have against the facilitator for any allegation of wrongful conduct on their part while acting in the course of facilitation.
